H. J. BARBER, Post Master.

Albans, April 8, 1864.

A campaign Union club has been established in Burlington, whose headquarters are in Strong's Hall. It is a pity that Town Committee for Albans did not take measures to organize here a campaign club for discussion and distribution of political news and documents. It is not yet late. Great good might be accomplished during this date and the 8th of November, if they would only avail themselves promptly and zealously.

We shall not print in our columns accounts of bets, votes taken on railroads or steamboats. They are really poor trash. They don't amount much when genuine, and most of accounts we find in the newspapers fictitious and gotten up "for fun."
